

Apptix Named #2 in its Category on Software Magazine's 27th Annual Software 500
Third Straight Year Apptix Ranked as one of the World's Largest Software Companies

Herndon, VA – November 20, 2009 – Apptix (OSE: APP), the leading provider of hosted Microsoft Exchange email, Microsoft SharePoint, and hosted VoIP voice services for businesses worldwide, today announced its inclusion on Software Magazine's Software 500 ranking of the world's largest software and service providers, now in its 27th year.

This is the third year in a row that Apptix has made the Software 500 list. Apptix was ranked second in its category, Application/Managed Service Provider. Overall, Apptix moved up from #326 in 2007 and #292 in 2008 to #274 this year, with software revenue of $41.4 million.

“Apptix’s inclusion and rise in the Software 500 for the third straight year highlights our employees’ persistence in providing our customers with operational and service excellence,” said David Ehrhardt, President & CEO of Apptix. “Our proven customer service and comprehensive services portfolio have positioned us to continue to grow as businesses from SoHo to the enterprise turn to hosted services to more efficiently utilize IT staff and resources in the current economy.”

The Software 500 is a revenue-based ranking of the world's largest software and services suppliers targeting medium to large enterprises, their IT professionals, software developers and business managers involved in software and services purchasing.

“The 2009 Software 500 results show that revenue growth in the software and services industry was healthy, with total Software 500 revenue of $491.3 billion worldwide for 2008 representing 8.8% growth from the previous year,” says John P. Desmond, editor of Software Magazine and SoftwareMag.com.
